NOTICE.

Cairo City Ferry Company, Cairo, Ill., April 15, 1872.
 Notice is hereby given that the regular annual meeting of the stockholders of this company will be held at the wharfmaster's office, corner sixth street and Ohio levee, in this city, on Monday, May 13th, 1872, at 10 o'clock a.m. for the purpose of electing seven (7) directors to serve the ensuing year and for general business.

WHOLESALE WHOLESALE!

GOLDSTINE & ROSENWATER.

Commercial Avenue.

Are selling their immense stock of

DRY GOODS,

TO ALL COMERS

AT WHOLESALE PRICES.

Remember, we make RE-

TAIL SALES at wholesale prices, for the following reasons:

Our stock of goods has been purchased direct of the first hands, (manufacturers and agents), previous to the great advance in prices, which saves us a handsome profit, and will give our customers and patrons the benefit thereof. Our large purchases enable us to offer at all times better inducements than any house in this city.

Our large and quick sales allow us to show and offer the freshest and latest styles of goods to be found in any of the largest Eastern Markets.

Our long experience in business enables us to offer just what our trade demands. We warrant our goods to compare in quality, styles and prices, not only with the Cairo Market, but with any of the large-est Eastern Markets.

To convince yourself of these facts you may pick up any paper in which you may find a price list or any quotations of any house at Chicago, St. Louis or Cincinnati, and we will at all times meet with them in quotations and prices.

Be sure and give us a trial before purchasing elsewhere, and be convinced this is no humbug—that we do sell, from the smallest to the largest, at the current WHOLESALE PRICES.

We have made this a Motto of Business, and hope to get an liberal patronage from this city and surrounding country.

—Parsons, Davis & Co., sell "Went-holm" Knives. 4-172w.

—Fresh stock of Silver Plated Cutlery at P. D. & Co's. 4-172w.

GENERAL.

SEVERAL EVENTS OF YESTERDAY, AND

COMMENTS CONFINED TO NO DAY.

—Table Cutlery at P. D. & Co's.

—Mrs. Mat. Burns was buried yesterday.

—Remember the first of May—state and county taxes. 4-174dw.

—Buy the new Fire Proof Lamp chimney of P. D. & Co. 4-172w.

—The probate court is waging along in a quiet manner, disposing of business with commendable rapidity.

—The sun—not the luminary of the levee—came out and blazed a moment or two and then retired again.

—The assessment of city property has been discontinued by order of the mayor.

The state law is the matter.

—It is said, that a negro was scalded by the Gallagher boiler explosion and running up the levee died, which is, most probably, a sensation.

—Harrison, the murderer of Swoboda, has employed Linegar for his defense.

Messrs. Allen, Mulkey & Wheeler, will, it is said, be on the side of the prosecution.

—Woodward's business has so largely increased that he must build another house beside his present store building, so that he may have room for the immense stock of goods he is compelled to keep on hand.

—A large and select invoice of Brolaskis warranted home made, Ladies', misses, and children's shoes and slippers, just received and on hand at the City Shoe Store. 4-171f.

—Two inquests were held yesterday, by Esquire McHale—one on the body of Swoboda, murdered by Harrison, the other on the body of Stump who was scalded to death by Gallagher's old boiler.

—Mr. Greeley, of the New York store, left yesterday for Washington to attend to business in the patent office. He will return via Cincinnati and be present at the Cincinnati convention as a looker-on at Vienna.

—P. H. Pope, Esq., in a political sense, is past praying for. He was for a moment almost persuaded to be a Liberal good boy, but yesterday went back to his Grant vomit, and is lapping it again with avidity.

—A social dance will be given by Mrs.

Hendricks, at number 134 Clark's building, Ohio levee, near the stone depot, on Friday evening, April 19th. A pleasant time is in store for those who may attend.

4-1743f.

—The Ohio & Mississippi Railroad will take passengers to the Cincinnati convention round trip, from St. Louis, for $10.

From Odin, the same.

W. B. HALE,

General Ticket Agent.

—Steamboats, since the Oceanus explosion, have been tarrying at our wharf to clean out the boilers. It is now believed by many that absolute safety cannot be guaranteed to any boat passing into the Mississippi with boilers full of Ohio river mud.

—The radicals yesterday made an attack on Councilman Schub, and attempted to frighten him out of his liberal stronghold, but without success. They were repulsed with slaughter, Fisher being mortally wounded and Pope considerably stunned.

—On Wednesday night five or six negro men set upon a white woman and be-labeled her with their fists in a shameful manner. A white man standing by, said he would have interfered, but he heard the woman call one of the negroes

"honey," and thought she therefore deserved all she got.

—In the police court yesterday, his honor Squire Shannessy, fined one John Harris, a colored man, five and the usual costs, on a charge of disorderly conduct. He was sent to the calaboose for eleven days.

Dominic Peono—who says he is a Frenchman from the south of France, was up for being drunk. He had not been very drunk, however, and his honor permitted him to go quiet.

—Rev. Mr. Shores, the distinguished colored Baptist minister of this city, heretofore a very ultra radical, has expressed his adherence to Charles Sumner in the light of that statesman with Gen. Grant, and declares that, if the Cincinnati convention shall act with wisdom, he will take the stump and defeat the president's re-election. The fact of the detection of Mr. Shores has created great consternation among the prominent radicals of Southern Illinois.

—The warm days of Summer are approaching, when we shall all be pestered by annoying mosquitoes and hopping frogs, but which will bring along with these trials the luxuries of ice cream and
